This cut represents the "Liebotschaner" Lager Beer.

Made by the Genesee Brewing Co. of Rochester, N. Y. It is made from the best German Hops and Canada Malt, and bottled in white flint glass, at the brewery, under the supervision of those who make it. It is absolutely pure.

In the spring many need a light tonic, and this Lager appears to be better adapted to such cases than the heavier Ales and Porters.

We are Sole Agents for its sale in New Haven.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.
Edward Harrigan, who is to present "The Major," at the Hyperion Thursday evening needs no introduction to the New Haven public. His company is composed of such able players that a first class performance is assured. Of the play which is to be presented here an exchange says: "The Major" is one of Harrigan's best, and that means a great deal. The jollity does not cease for one minute during the entire performance. Harrigan is a peer of the realm of funmakers, and every member of his company is excellent. Sale of seats now open.

Roland Reed will present "The Politician" Saturday evening at this theater, filling a special engagement.

Grand Opera House.
There was a crowded house at the Grand Opera house last night, the occasion being the presentation of "The Two Sisters," which was written by Denman Thompson and George W. R. R.

The first act opens in New York in the interior of a hotel and represents how the two sisters had left home, also bringing before the audience the villain and the hero. The scene of act second is laid in Central Park; the two sisters are sitting in the park and are treated very impudently by a gentlemanly looking loungeur, who is about to scrape up an acquaintance when he is prevented by the appearance on the scene of "Hiram Pepper," an honest, good natured examiner from Montana. The westerner advises the girls to have nothing to do with the loungeur. One of the pleasing features of this act is the humorous character "Johanna Nolan," by Miss Emily Stowe, who convulses the audience by her extremely cute remarks. Act third brings us to the house in New York where "Hiram Pepper" has taken up his residence. He falls in love with the younger of the sisters whom he protected in the park and has hired her as an housekeeper, not yet having declared his love. The elder sister in the meantime has been betrayed by the same villain who met her in the park. In the last act the villain is brought to justice and "Pepper" marries the younger sister, Mary. A very pleasing number of the third act is the singing of "Old Folks at Home" by I. B. Martin, the famous basso.

This performance called forth strong applause. Mr. Add Ryman as "Hiram Pepper" was great, doing full justice to the part of a rough, but honorable retired miner. "Harry Norton," the rascal, was splendidly portrayed by Mr. Willard Lee, while Miss Henrietta Lee and Miss Ella Berger as the two sisters were certainly fine. Miss Lee was superb in the cast of a girl betrayed and sunk to the deepest despair, while Miss Berger seemed very real in the pretty ways of an innocent young girl. All the cast was good.

The play will be presented again tonight and to-morrow night. Don't forget the matinee Wednesday.

Summer popular prices—10 and 20 cents; go as you please.

Donnelly and Girard will present "The Rainmakers" at the Grand Opera house the last three days this week.

Miss Isabelle Urquhart, called the handsomest woman on the American stage, has been engaged by Donnelly and Girard for the part of the rich widow in "The Rainmakers." Miss Urquhart has filled prominent characters with Lawrence Barrett, Augustine Daly and Lillian Russell companies. There will be a matinee at popular summer prices Saturday.

The summer season is now open at the Grand Opera house, and until further notice the prices at the matinee will be 10c, 20c, and in the evening reserved seats will be 30c, 50c, and sofa chairs 75c. There will be no change in this scale of prices excepting the benefit of the Actors' Fund of America, May 6, 7, 8.

Poll's Wonderful Theater.
The beautiful Creoles who made such an immense hit with "Little Christopher" had a most successful debut in their week's engagement at the Wonderland. Great crowds attended the opening performances yesterday and last evening, and everybody had a word of praise for the brilliant spectacular diversions which the handsome young women presented. The Creoles appeared to be one flash of splendor, as they moved about the stage, with myriads of tiny electric lights blazing from every part of their persons, and as the spectators watched the brilliant spectacle it seemed to him as if huge fireflies were passing back and forth before his enchanted eyes. It was a veritable fairy spectacle such as we read of in the tales of the Arabian Nights. An unusually attractive vaudeville performance is also given. The two Clippers produce some very taking comedy, and Mr. Curran's singing is most sweetly sympathetic. John and Nellie McCarthy make considerable fun with their quaint comedy sketch, and the Franks interest with their marvelous skill on the horizontal bars. Miss Minnie Belle does some charming singing and dancing, and Willis and Halpin, Barry and Bannon, and Mr. Foreman and Miss West also distinguish themselves. The performance throughout is interesting and entertaining to a high degree, assuring a very pleasant time to all who visit the Wonderland during the week.
